Cepaim Foundation starts a selection process for the HIRING OF ONE PROFESSIONAL in the center of SORIA, Spain, in the frame of a project in the Rural Development Area. The position is subject to the following terms and conditions:

1 KNOWLEDGE BROKER / SOCIAL EXPERT

The professional will develop his/her responsibilities within the framework of a transnational research project funded by the European Commission in the contexts of HORIZON-2020 Program:

"‘WELCOMING SPACES’ IN EUROPE: REVITALISING SHRINKING AREAS BY HOSTING NON-EU MIGRANTS"

OBJECTIVES OF THE POSITION

The project ‘WELCOMING SPACES’ tracks the answers on how to achieve inclusive and sustainable development, contributing to revitalisation in shrinking EU regions while providing opportunities for the successful integration of non-EU migrants.

The position provides the opportunity to work in an interdisciplinary and international environment where academic and societal partners collaborate in finding solutions to two social challenges: how to contribute to the revitalisation of shrinking areas in the EU while also offering space for the successful integration of non-EU migrants in line with the Sustainable Development Goals (‘Leaving no one behind’).

Based in Cepaim’s headquarters in Soria city, the position requires visits to and coordination with project partners in Italy, Spain, Germany, the Netherlands and Poland.

Thus, the selected knowledge broker & social expert will contribute to the networking, knowledge exchange and systematization, and advocacy efforts to support and upscale ‘welcoming’ initiatives in shrinking regions in the Netherlands, Germany, Spain, Italy and Poland.

Research will involve intensive fieldwork and building a database according to the work-packages defined on the project. ‘WELCOMING SPACES’ project consists of both academic and societal partners in five countries.

Under the supervision of Cepaim’s Rural Development programme head, and in close coordination with civil society and academic partners in the project, the knowledge broker & social expert will carry out all the tasks defined in the project to ensure the accomplishment of the following project objectives:

- Identify best practices and lessons learned along all the partner countries.
- Support the mapping and analysis of the localities matter of the research.
- Build a network and platform for academic and non-academic partners to exchange experiences of ‘welcoming spaces’
- Organize events with policymakers, stakeholders and local practitioners in order to identify best practices and lessons learned with regard to ‘welcoming initiatives’
- Develop and experiment with new methodologies with regard to initiatives of ‘welcoming spaces’
- Develop a ‘tool box’ of successful methodologies.

TRAINING

Required:

REFRAIN ALL APPLICANTS NOT MEETING THESE REQUIREMENTS.

- University degree in Human Geography, Sociology, Social Psychology, Migration Studies and / or other Social Sciences fitting with the project contents, tasks and responsibilities.
- Proficiency level in English.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills both in English and Spanish: to generate documentation in English; to take part in international conferences and meeting; to be used in the everyday work and contact with the European partners and the Spanish team; etc.
- Knowledge of and/or strong affinity with the research topic (shrinking areas / migration).

Recommended:

- Master’s degree in Social Sciences, or a comparable background (Migration studies, Human geography, Development studies, and other related social disciplines)
- Independent thinking and critical analytical skills.
- Experience with knowledge systematization and intensive field immersion.
- Proven ability to work independently (e.g. during fieldwork) and in a team (e.g. through joint analysis and writing).
- An interest in, and experience with, research communication beyond academic audiences.
Before sending the application, the candidate should have made a personal and critical reflection about the possible influence of post-COVID-19 on the situation at local and European levels, and its impact on the work of the position as described in this document. The reflection should lead to a series of concrete proposals in order to successfully face the situation post COVID-19.
